

SECOND HALF

School name: National College Of Techninical Career Education.

Sludent Name: Aguilar Salazar
Juan José.

Techer Name: Nayeli López Lengua.

His name the black charro.

He is Mexican legend that represents the derk side of human beings.

He is over 104 years old.

He is from Mexico.

He is tal and thin.

He has red eyes.

He has straight eyebrow hair.

15 Setences that brought a person down.

- 1.The charro black is a legendary figure from mexican folklore, known as a sinister and mysterius cowboy.
- 2. He is often depicted as a tal, dark man dressed in traditional charro attire, complete with a black hat and cape.
- 3.The charro black rides a black horse with glowing red eyes, adding to his eerie presence.
- 4.Many stories describe him as a soul collector, offering deals that often lead to doom.
- 5.He is said to appear to travelers who are alone at nighu, especially those traveling on deserted roads.
- 6.His offers often involve wealth or wishes, but accepting the comes at a terrible price.
- 7.Some legends say the charro black was once a greedy man who lost his soul due to his selfish desires.
- 8.He is believed to approach those who have committed wrongdoings or carry heavy guilt in their heart.
- 9.The charro black has a deep, intimidating voice that resonates with those who meet hearts.

10.He can disappear into the shadows vanishing instantly when someone refuses his offer.

11.If a traveler accepts his help, they are bound to suffer terrible consequences or lose their soul.

12.In some versions, he temts people with gold coins, which later turn into dust.

13.The charro black is seen as a warning to those tempted by greed and desire.

14.His legend serves as moral lesson about the dengers of making deals with evil forces.

15.Sigyhtings of the charro black are said to bring mistortune, as he represents death and despair.

